Agreement of Cooperation between

The University of New Mexico and
The Martin-Luther Universitaet Halle-Wittenberg

Article 1: Purpose of the Agreement

Both parties will support the development of joint projects in the areas of scholarly research and student exchange.

Article 2: General Principles of Cooperation

Both parties are interested in joint cooperation in the following areas:

- Scholarly research programs
- Exchange of teaching and research faculty
- Exchange of scholarly literature in all fields
- Exchange of students for one semester or academic year

Article 3: Areas of Scholarly Cooperation

Both parties, to the extent possible, will develop and undertake joint scholarly research programs in various fields of interest.

Article 4: Exchange of Teaching and Research Faculty

The two institutions will arrange both short-term and long-term faculty exchange to the extent possible.

Article 5: Student Exchange

The two parties will encourage an exchange of students, with the understanding that they must meet educational requirements at both institutions. The participating students will pay their tuition and fees at their respective home institutions and are exempt from such amounts at the host institution as long as the exchange is equal.

Article 6: Exchange of information

The two institutions will seek to exchange scholarly publications, academic journals, teaching materials, and other literature and information which may promote the academic welfare and research of the two institutions.

Article 7: Accommodations

Both institutions will assist students in seeking campus accommodation.

Article 8: Administration

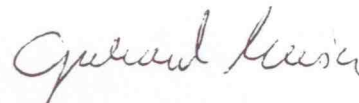

Each institution will appoint a coordinator for overseeing and facilitating the implementation of this agreement.

Article 9: Duration of the Agreement

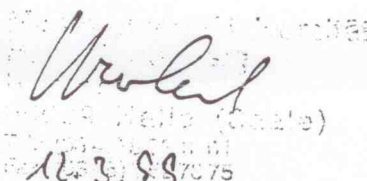

This agreement will remain in effect for a period of one year from the date of signing. It is automatically renewed annually under the same terms and conditions for further one-year periods unless written notice is given by either party at least ninety days prior to the date of expiration.
