

MEMORANDUM OF UNDERSTANDING BETWEEN
CAPITAL NORMAL UNIVERSITY, P. R. CHINA
AND
THE REGENTS OF THE UNIVERSITY OF NEW MEXICO
ALBUQUERQUE, N.M., U.S.A.

In order to enhance relations and friendship between the two universities and to develop academic and cultural exchange in the areas of education, research and related activities, Capital Normal University (CNU) and the University of New Mexico (UNM) agree to cooperate and work together towards the internationalization of higher education.

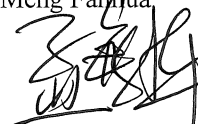

- I. The areas of cooperation will include any program offered at each university which is desirable and feasible for the achievement of these objectives. Such programs may include:
 - Exchange of faculty members in possible fields
 - Exchange of students, including short-term and long-term studies
 - Joint research in the fields of mutual interest
 - Joint conferences
- II. Both institutions will carry out any of the above programs that they may decide to implement under mutual understanding and in accordance with the applicable laws and regulations of each party's respective jurisdiction. Any finance issues will be coordinated and resolved by the official representatives of both institutions. Each type of cooperation shall proceed according to the terms and conditions of a specific program agreement. Each specific program agreement shall memorialize all the commitments made by each party and shall not become effective until it has been reduced to writing, approved, and signed by the parties' duly authorized representatives.
- III. This Memorandum of Understanding becomes effective on the day it is signed by both parties and remains valid for five years. It may be amended or modified in a writing signed by the parties' duly authorized representatives.
- IV. This Memorandum of Understanding will be automatically renewable on the same terms and conditions for another five years, unless written notice is given by either party six months in advance of the date of expiration.
- V. Either party may terminate this Memorandum of Understanding by giving the other party at least six months' written notice. In the case of termination, faculty and student participants already in the program may complete their courses of study, and any collaborative project in progress at the date of termination may be completed as specified in the pertinent specific program agreement.
